Streams Of Life

Like tiny patters of rain
We are brought into being alone – small and delicate
yet so significant as a whole.
As a spring rain is beneficial
to this green earth,
We are refreshing in our innocent youth.
We allow others to build the bridges
over our troubled waters
as we flow on unceasing.
So many people
So many experiences
become a part of our lives
and our patters become splashes
in the world and the lives of others
as we add knowledge upon knowledge gaining momentum – spilling, tumbling exultant with life we go to universities and colleges independent and proud trying to remain between the banks of reason
but sometimes overflowing
–so zealous are we in our freedom.
We spend those years as if in pools sometimes peaceful, sometimes turbulent ever growing and maturing;
then we spill forth in various directions
near and far
some of us like tiny streams
leading to lush, green meadows
–others like powerful, rolling rivers
to the vast ocean where the new and the old mingle and become one.
Where will we go? What will we become?
A frightening question that tugs at all of our minds.
But he flow of life like the flow of the rivers
our tiny patters have made will carry us to our destiny.

Where Chilhowee's lofty mountains,
Pierce the Southern Blue,
Proudly stands our Alma Mater,
Noble, grand, and true.

Orange, Garnet, float forever,
Ensign of our hill.
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Hail to Maryville!

As thy hilltop crowned with cedars
Ever green appears
So thy mem'ry fresh shall linger
Through life's smiles and tears.

Lift the chorus, wake the echoes,
Make the welkin ring!
Hail the queen of all the highlands!
Loud her praises sing!

FAMOUS PLOYS OF M.C.	TRANSLATIONS
The infamous "boyfriend at home" ploy.	Get lost sucker.
The "boyfriend in the Service" ploy.	Same as above.
The famous "we are such good friends that I don't want to spoil our relationship by going out with you" ploy.	Your good but not good enough sucker.
The old "I want to go out with other guys" ploy.	I want to be popular sucker.
The ever popular "I just had a bad experience and I don't want to start a new relationship" ploy.	I need more time sucker.
The standard "you're not my type" ploy.	My friends don't like you sucker.
The "I am leaving school, so it would not be good to start a relationship" ploy.	You're not worth the trouble sucker.
The not so infamous but effective "I've got to go home next weekend" ploy.	Once was enough sucker.
The depressing "I want someone else to buy me at the auction" ploy.	Your money is good but his is a hell of a lot better sucker.

The 1980 MC football team started the season off with an encouraging win over Centre College, but the inexperience of Zaneski's young team proved to be their undoing as the Scots stacked up a final record of 5 wins and 5 losses. With only 18 lettermen and 10 starters returning, Zaneski relied heavily upon many of his freshman recruits. Although the score did not always reflect it, the Scot football players put in many hours of hard work and practice. They did a fine job in this rebuilding year.

The Maryville College soccer team showed great promise in its first year as a varsity sport. Coach Pasqua gives credit for the team spirit and leadership to Ken Davidson, leading scorer, and captains John LaCava and Tim Fitzgerald, goalie. We congratulate the soccer team on their fine effort and wish them luck next year.

Men's Tennis

Co-Captains-Steve Arnold and Randy Massey

The Maryville College men's tennis team earned the best record (12-10) in several years in 1979-80. This year, under a new coach, Randy Lambert, the team has four returning starters-Randy Shackelford, Larry Durand, and co-captains Steve Arnold and Randy Massey. New players are David Raulerson, Eric Greaser, and David Mitchell.

Under the leadership of first year Tennis Coach, Brenda Cooper, the 1981 Maryville College women's tennis team began practice during February with a weight and conditioning program. The spring schedule consists of fourteen regular season matches including such top-ranked teams as Tennessee Tech, Sewanee, and Carson Newman.

the ending is the source from which the beginning flows

Maryville College has become an important factor in my life. With each additional day, I see more and more which I have never seen before. Maryville has offered me a chance to grow emotionally, socially, and educationally. The effect that Maryville has had on me will always be a part of my future.

I hope that your time here at Maryville has been as rewarding to you as mine has to me. It is through this yearbook that the Chilhowean Staff hopes you can always remember Maryville. There have been many long hours of work put into this yearbook in hopes that it will always keep Maryville a vital tool in your life. The staff has worked together in producing this yearbook for the Maryville College Community.

I would like to publicly thank my 1981 Chilhowean Staff for a job well done. Without them, this yearbook would not exist. In turn, the Chilhowean Staff would like to thank Don White Walker for the use of his award winning photograph as our title page. This yearbook is a staff effort which says a lot in itself. Thanks to those who added that little extra which has made our yearbook such a success.

Personally, I would like to thank my staff for the support and encouragement which you gave me. I will always remember your dedication. Thank you.

Sidney Bright

Deep in the vale between snow-covered mountains
With a windswept slope for her mother
The beginning of all life springs forth
In a gurgling trickle she meets her first light
Under the shadows of a late winter morning
A river is born.

Her path still uncertain as she descends from the womb
A sudden-struck springtime nourishes the child
With a youthfull vigor she falls
Stronger and stronger each step of the way
Behind the dark woods a sparkle dances through An April mist.

Tumbling white waters past the seasons of change
Crashing and splashing over rocks that have seen
A circle of time passage eternal and grand
Blue-green spectators watch her advance
So swift in her life-giving dash
Through the forest.

Now summer brings glory to this thing once so small
And the trees draw their fullness from her vein
All creatures cool their thirst in her bending waters
Still making escape with a new mighty flow
The river rolls on — leaves float on her back To the Autumn.

Those who have seen her as she winds to the sea
This river of change onetime born of the rains
Know that she beckons whoever will heed
To drink from her goodness so fresh yet so old
For by lifting the spirit one grows ever more
On the river of life.
